

Sheriff Asked to Increase Size of Reserve Forces

Sheriff Peter Pitchess has been asked to consider increasing the size of his reserve force, and providing greater incentives for men to join this fine unit.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn told the Board of Supervisors that Sheriff's reservists presently have to pay for their own uniform and guns, although they serve as many as 40 hours a month as regular deputies for only $1 a year compensation.

"Many citizens are willing to volunteer their services to their community without a salary," Hahn said, "but many families cannot financially bear paying as much as $200 for a belt, pistol, and uniform."

"Maybe we are going too far by asking reservists to provide their own uniform," he said.

On his motion, the Board of Supervisors asked Sheriff Pitchess to study the suggestion.

Hahn noted that the well-trained reserve force, if made large, could help solve the increasing law enforcement problem.

There are presently 837 members of the Sheriff's general reserve, 377 in the mounted posse, and 105 in the aero squadron.

FEELING DIFFERENT
Men and women wonder if they are truly different from other people and yearn to know if those who once trod this way and are now gone felt the same as they.

Ocean Estates Offers Four Bedroom Homes, Two or Three Baths

DEDICATION

This school is dedicated to the ideal that the Dance is the heritage of every child:

- (1) To insure the development of beautiful bodies, during the entire period of growth.
- (2) To give the joyous experience of vigorous and spiritual movement to the music of the masters.
- (3) To arouse an appreciation of the beautiful in life through participation in the fine arts.
- (4) To give each child the realization of his latent abilities and to develop these to their greatest power.
- (5) To promote and maintain the Dance as a fine art and as a worthy instrument of education.

SWINGING DOWN A LANE

Lanes in Gardena on Thursday, Sept. 5, at 5 p.m. Each year the National Fifty and Over Bowling Club will honor a Joe Bowler and Jane Bowler. We will have all the details in the near future.

We are sorry that some of our top bowlers did not have a chance to bowl in the tournament. We match average against average and they were just a little too good. Nevertheless, it was a very close match. Torrance won over the city of Santa Monica, 12 to 8.

General manager of La Tijera Lanes in Westchester will see to it that the winners of the high series receive a nice trophy. Hickory Cavanaugh, a charter member from the time of the club's beginning, and 73 years young, walked off with top honors with a 610 series. Lillian Stafford came out on top with a nice 580. Congratulations to you both.

On Sunday, Sept. 22, the NFAOBC will travel to San Diego for their third match with the Thirty-Niners League. This is always fun-time for everyone involved, and we look forward to it each time we bowl against each other. There will be about 50 members from Torrance and Santa Monica leaving by bus from Rose Lanes. This time we hope we can bring home the winning scores.

Good bowling, but above all good sportsmanship.

FUN LISTENING

Often, we can't think of a thing to say about a subject being discussed and feel as though we should say something. That's a good time to discover the fun of listening.
